

James M. Gaylor MD is the next Emergency Medicine Fellow in Health Policy at Georgetown University. Dr. Gaylor has a track record of activism, with experience lobbying his local Senator and publishing in local papers regarding social justice and public health issues. He is also a published author or co-author of scholarly journals on the topic of meta-analysis. He recently served as a Congressional health fellow in the US House of Representatives. Dr. Gaylor has been a member of ACEP since he was a medical student and looks forward to continuing to be an active member.